Council Upholds Firing of Colma Police Officer

The Colma City Council in a split 3-1 vote Monday decided to support the firing of police officer Raymond Ottoboni Jr. for unofficer-like conduct.

Police chief James Dorris earlier told the council Ottoboni — whose father is senior councilman and a former Colma mayor — had conducted himself improperly both at the Daly City Prearraignment Detention Facility (PDF), while booking a prisoner, and another time while off-duty at a Burlingame bar.

With one vacancy remaining on the council, due to the resignation of councilman Earl Taylor, Mayor Fred Garbini, and councilmen Wallace Honeywell and Eugene Danaleux voted to uphold Dorris' firing of officer Ottoboni. His father, Raymond, voted against the ouster.

Asked for his vote following the lengthy public hearing on the matter, Ottoboni Sr. said he did not support Dorris' action "and I never will."

Ottoboni was the subject of a stern letter written by Daly City Police Chief David Hansen on behalf of the PDF council — the governing body of the four city North County detention facility.

According to Hansen, Ottoboni had, on several occasions, failed to comply with standard procedures for booking prisoners into the jail.

One jail technician reported to Dorris Ottoboni's failure to comply with regulations.

Later Ottoboni allegedly encountered another woman jail technician at a Burlingame bar and "verbally and profanely chastised and harassed her," according to Hansen's August 26 letter to Dorris.

Hansen asked that Ottoboni not be assigned to booking prisoners at the PDF in the future.

Monday, defense attorney John Fahey argued that Ottoboni had not been instructed as to the proper booking procedure at the PDF.

Previous to using the Daly City jail, prisoners were taken to South San Francisco where police took over from the arresting officer, according to testimony given by Ottoboni at the hearing.

Fahey also produced a witness to the conversation between Ottoboni and police technician M. Sellai at Shipwreck Kelley's bar.

Walter Lane, former security guard at the Marina Hotel, where the bar is located, said he was standing some six feet from Ottoboni and a woman and "never heard any profanity used."

A second character witness, Dan Lilly, former chief of security at the Marina Hotel, attested to the fact that Ottoboni had never caused any disturbances at the hotel.

Fahey summed up his defense of Ottoboni by pointing out Dorris' evidence was based on hearsay and was not taken under oath.

"There is no evidence to establish (Ottoboni) should be fired from his job," Fahey said.

It was also noted by Fahey that Dorris had failed to produce witnesses against Ottoboni so that sworn testimony could be taken, thereby failing to comply with the basic rights of an individual to face his accusers.

The question of whether Councilman Ottoboni was in conflict for voting on his son's firing is being investigated today by the San Mateo County District Attorney's office, it was learned.

Asst. District Atty. William Larsen said on the surface it did not appear to be a conflict of interest on Ottoboni's part because there must be "financial embellishment on the part of the voter."

Did Harrises Live in DC?

By DUANE SANDUL and FRANK LaPIERRE

William and Emily Harris may have been renting a Daly City apartment since May 5, The Post learned Tuesday.

The manager of a complex at 401 Irvington St. where FBI agents Monday found a 14-inch pipe bomb today told The Post that he rented the apartment to a couple resembling the Harrises.

The manager, Michael Odello of Milpitas, said the couple identified themselves as Mr. and Mrs. Dave Holcomb of San Francisco.

Odello, managing the four-unit complex for his brother John, who is in Italy, said he saw the couple only once. The man Odello said resembled Harris was beginning a beard, he said.

Harris wore a beard when captured last Thursday.

Odello said he received a monthly rental check by mail.

The Daly City apartment is six blocks from where fugitives Patricia Hearst and Wendy Yoshimura were arrested last week.

San Francisco FBI chief Charles Bates has clamped a lid of secrecy on the apartment raid.

But it was learned that Municipal Court Judge F. Jose deLarios in South San Francisco signed a search warrant late Sunday night.

The warrant was sought after a mover found a pipe bomb hidden in some furniture he had picked up the Irvington Street apartment.

San Francisco police inspector Don Hansen said the bomb taken from the Irvington address was the same type found in the residences occupied by the Harrises and Miss Yoshimura and Miss Hearst.

There were "a lot of fingerprints taken" inside the Daly City house, but police experts have thus far not had time to examine them, Hansen said.

The first indication that more than one gun, as first reported, was taken from the apartment came today.

Inspector Hansen said "guns and other items" were found inside the apartment, but he would not elaborate.

The Post learned the unidentified moving man who uncovered the pipe bomb inside a basket also found a pistol concealed in a binocular case.

Bomb experts Tuesday launched a close inspectiom to determine if they can link the seized bomb to other bombings in the Bay Area, including one at the General Motors Corp. office in Burlingame last October and the arson-bombing of the home of Charles deBretteville of Woodside in July.

De Bretteville, a bank executive and a member of the board of directors of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. was named on a list found in a Concord home set afire after a Symbionese Liberation Army contingent left it.

The Post learned Monday that police and FBI agents also found a shotgun and ammunition, along with "revoluntionary rhetoric," inside the Daly City apartment.

Thomas Blake, a deputy district attorney in South San Francisco who accompanied police and agents on the raid, said the search warrant naming the items authorities were seeking must be filed in public records within 10 days.

Until that time, authorities are not talking about it.

Blake told The Post that a neighbor reported as many

DC Pipe Bomb Find Linked to SLA Arrests

By FRANK LaPIERRE

The twisting, elusive trail of suspected Symbionese Liberation Army members Monday morning led FBI agents to a modest apartment building in Daly City, some six blocks from where fugitives Patty Hearst and Ewndy Yoshimura were arrested last week.

San Francisco FBI chief Charles Bates immediately ordered a lid of secrecy on the raid at 401 Irvington Street.

An FBI spokesman said Bates "has no statement at this time on anything (taken by police) from the residence."

The Post learned, however, that Daly City police, at the request of San Francisco, obtained a search warrant to enter the apartment after a mover found a pipe bomb hidden in some furniture he picked up from the Irvington Street address.

Police also refused to identify the part-time moving man "because he's scared to death."

San Francisco Police Inspector Don Hansen said a 14-inch pipe bomb, complete with batteries, timer and wiring, was discovered inside a basket being moved from 401 Irvington to 1837 San Jose Ave., a vacant house in San Francisco about one block from the Ingleside (San Francisco) Police Station.

When Daly City and San Francisco police arrived at the Irvington address shortly after midnight today the apartment was vacant.

Inside they found a shotgun and ammunition, along with what one officer called "revolutionary rhetoric."

The bomb had been "definitely inside that apartment," a Daly City officer said.

He would not elaborate.

The intended use of the bomb could not be determined, police said.

Whether it was supposed to explode inside the vacant house, or to be picked up by someone and delivered elsewhere, also was unknown.

Two women and a man had lived in the Daly City apartment for about a week, neighbors said.

It is believed that the women are fugitives Kathleen Soliah, 28, and her sister, Josephine, 24.

The third occupant — a man — was not identified.

It was a man who called the mover to pick up several boxes to be delivered.

Except to acknowledge that "this definitely ties in with the Patty Hearst case," police are being tight-lipped about the matter today.

Six blocks away from the scene of this morning's raid is 625 Morse St., San Francisco, where Miss Hearst and Miss Yoshimura were apprehended by the FBI.

A Daly City police spokesman said the close proximity of the two suspected SLA houses is not unusual.

In the past, the SLA has maintained two locations, perhaps so that in case one was raided the other could be used as an escape route.

Stephen Soliah, the 27-year-old house painter arrested by the FBI in San Francisco's Mission District last week, rented the Morse Street address, using the name "Charles Adams."

He has been charged with harboring fugitives, a federal crime.

SLA HIDEOUT??

A combined task force of Daly City and San Francisco police, aided by FBI agents, raided this apartment at 401 Irvington Street shortly after midnight Sunday. Police believe this was where a pipe bomb, delivered to a vacant house several blocks away, originated. The apartment had been abandoned earlier, police said.

Board Asks For Code

Dist. Atty. Keith C. Sorenson has been requested by the County Board of Supervisors to prepare a model conflict of interest code because the state has not done so to date.

County Manager M. D. Tarshes requested the action in accordance with provisions of the Political Reform Act of 1974.

The act, approved by the state's voters as Proposition 9, requires boards of supervisors to adopt a conflict of interest code for board members and employes in the offices of boards. It also provides that boards of supervisors act as the reviewing body for conflict of interest codes of all county agencies other than boards of supervisors.

This group, Tarshes said this week, includes various county commissions, boards, and departments, all special districts, the East Palo Alto Municipal Council, the County Superintendent of Schools Office and all school districts.

"Isn't this a waste of money?" commented James V. Fitzgerald, noting that the state should devise a single conflict of interest code for the state's some 3,000 governmental jurisdictions.

Girl Hit by Auto Dies

A seven-year-old Milpitas girl, on her way to a nearby store to buy candy, was struck by a car and fatally injured Monday in Daly City.

Samantha Ponce, daughter of Alfonso and Audelia Ponce, was struck at 6:25 p.m. while crossing King Drive in the Serramonte section of that city.

Witnesses said the child jaywalked in front of a car driven by Parley L. Varney Jr. 19, of San Bruno.

Trustee Meet 'Rally' Backs Ms. Fernandez

Children carried signs reading, "3 Rs — a Quality Administration" and "Shelly Fernandez for Principal."

Individuals representing minority groups and a few parents stood at the microphone, supporting the former George Washington School vice principal they want to see become principal.

"My boy told me to attend this meeting to support Ms. Fernandez," one parent said. "I don't know her, but if she's good enough for my boy, she's good enough for me."

The small demonstration was prompted by the recent selection of a principal for the school which is in a minority area of Daly City.

Nearly 300 students in grades four, five and six attend school there.

Brunan Arrested

The FBI has arrested a San Bruno man on five counts of possession of stolen construction tractors.

John Frederick Mills, 50 of 111 Darby Place in San Bruno, was apprehended by FBI investigators Friday after two years of investigation.

The maximum penalty for the offense is 10 years and $10,000 fine.

FBI spokesman Don McPherson said Mills was among several suspects during the two years of investigation.

The California Highway Patrol, San Francisco Police Department, and the San Mateo County Sheriff's office were all involved in the investigation, he said.

New Candidates In Police District

Two write-in candidates have joined the growing list of persons running for office in the Broadmoor Police District's November election.

Maggie John and Frank Treanor have tossed their hats into the campaign circle, joining five other candidates vying for two seats.

Police commissioners Vince Murphy and Lou Manis have opted not to run.

Official candidates now include Dean Davenport, J Wayne Johnson, Roswel Hilton V, Charles Earl Phillips and Peter McMillan.

There are three members on the police commission.

The third commissioner, John McCloskey, is the subject of a recall petition now underway in Broadmoor.

Write-in candidates have until Oct. 27 to file.

Transit District Appoints Director

The San Mateo County Transit Board Monday hired a fulltime transit district director at an annual salary of $46,000 in a closed door executive session held in Redwood City, it was learned Tuesday.

John T. Mauro, 52, presently executive director of the Port Authority of Alleghany County, Pa., was selected by the district from a field of 217 candidates from throughout the country.

Mauro is married and has four children.

He will assume the new post on Oct. 20, a district spokesman said.

The Port Authority, where Mauro is now employed, operated with a $64 million budget during the 1974-75 fiscal years; has 2,800 employes; uses 1,000 buses and trolleys; and, transported some 104 million passengers in 1974.

Mauro will be the district's first fulltime executive director.

County Engineer Sid Cantwell has been acting-general manager of the fledgling district since its inception.

Long-Sought DC Child-Care Center Approved

By JANET PARKER

A long-time campaign for a day-care center in a Daly City poverty target area ended in success Wednesday night.

There were cheers, tears and cries of congratulations when the Jefferson Elementary School District Board of Trustees approved the placement of a portable building on the George Washington School campus.

The Daly City Community for Children's Services has been pressing the board for a room or space for a relocateable building in the 18-school district since early in the year.

They plan to accommodate 10 to 15 children 2 to 5 years of age.

Rhina Gonzalez, the groups' spokesman, and members of the group's board of directors were prepared with their strategy to convince the board of the need for the center.

"We have investigated every possibility," Mrs. Gonzalez said. "Just like you, everybody has been tossing us around."

The organization already has obtained $92,595 in federal funds for the project. Suitable facilities were the stumbling block.

Mrs. Gonzalez told the board her group had intended to come to the meeting that night with banners thanking the board.

Instead, she said, the district administration had indicated Monday that no classroom or other room would be available at George Washington, as originally expected, and that the portable buildings might interfere with use of the school playground.

In order for the group to obtain its funding the center had to be located in the George Washington target area of high minority population.

"I don't see any happy faces here. I feel I am all alone. I have begged and begged from the bottom of my heart," she said.

The center is intended to help those who need to go out and work, she noted.

"Let us help the mothers who need child care," she said.

The school's former vice-principal, Shelly Fernandez, told the board parents in the community want the center at the school.

The center will provide a new opportunity for some mothers to work, she said.

"It's always been a problem in the Latino community," Ms. Fernandez said.

Tom Nataro, former principal of the school, said locating the portable building on the baseball diamond or play area would deprive the regular school children of some activity and might cause some rescheduling of physical education classes and programs.

"The play area is the only place available and, again, it would limit the area of the students," he said.

"I can't accept the idea that baseball is more important than bringing up the living conditions of people in that area," Ms. Fernandez said.

The board generally agreed the day-care center will fill a need.

Trustee Dorothy Adams said the district will realize the savings in providing care for the smaller child.

Many children, she said, begin school at George Washington unable to speak English language.

"It is in the best interest of George Washington School to have some children better prepared to accept and assimilate," Mrs. Adams said. "All tax supported agencies should make an effort to work together."

Although the board unanimously approved the installation of portables on the play yard, they denied, temporarily at least, the organization's request to use the school's multi-purpose room.

The former principal, Nataro, indicated the multi-purpose room is used throughout the day and after school.

Daly City Community for Children's Services members said a portable probably will be obtained in a month.

They presently are selecting their 11-member staff and will be accepting applications from parents who want their children to use the center.

Rally

Ms. Fernandez was vice principal at the school when a position for principal was opened.

She was one of 20 persons interviewed for the job by a panel of four teachers, two parents and two administrators.

She was not one of six persons recommended by the committee to the district for the job.

Trustees subsequently approved a San Mateo Elementary School educator, Robert Williams, 35, as principal.

He has refused the job.

Ms. Fernandez's supporters claimed that she was not selected because of discriminatory action by Supt. Herbert Hemington.

Mrs. Fernandez, who said she's half Chicano, is also a member of the National Organization of Women (NOW) Board of Directors and recently served as acting director of the Guadalupe Health Center.

Her supporters were denied a public hearing in her case and decided to stage their own Wednesday.

Hemington had said a public hearing is reserved for employes who are dismissed from the district.

Ms. Fernandez was reassigned to a district position as bilingual coordinator.

Since the supporters appeared at a meeting two weeks ago, the situation has become more complicated.

After Williams refused the job, the superintendent asked Iola McKeown, a former district principal, now in retirement, to serve as acting principal.

Maury Tolson of NAACP in Daly City said the kind of children who attend George Washington need more supervision than Mrs. McKeown can provide with an injured foot.

"You've got to face reality," Tolson said. "The kids don't have the respect of a principal right now."

"It's obvious to me and the community something is wrong within the administration," Tolson said.

Ginni Bartolome, a parent in the district, said the district should at least appoint Ms. Fernandez acting principal at the school.

She said Ms. Fernandez knows the families of the community on a first name basis and knows the problems of the community.

Ms. Fernandez said later that she had visited the school this week "and it was very difficult for me."

She said she saw problems with school supervision.

She has offered to serve as a temporary principal until a permanent one is named.

He said Ms. Fernandez has an important responsibility this year as the bilingual coordinator and that Mrs. McKeown will be able to fill the duties.

"We have made an active search for the best qualified candidate and we have tried to attract as many minority candidates as possible," he said.

He also noted that three minorities were hired as principals in the district beginning this fall at Crocker, Olympia and General Pershing Schools.

The district already has begun to readvertise the opening and Hamington said he expects a selection could be made by the middle of October.

The selection committee again will be comprised of two teachers, two administrators and two parents.

The parents will be selected from names submitted from the community.

Ms. Fernandez has sought legal advice from attorney Shirley C. Yawitz, who also represents NOW.

Ms. Yawitz said she will wait and see what occurs with the board before any legal action is attempted.

Ms. Fernandez said she will reapply for the vacancy.

as three families were residing in the residence during at least the past couple of weeks.

The manager, Odello, also told the newspaper that even though he hadn't seen the "Holcombs" since May, he did see other people in the apartment, presumably friends from Oregon.

Blake wouldn't identify those suspected by authorities of living there. But he did say the names were taken from bills mailed to the address.

"It has all the appearances of your common crash pad . . ." Blake said of the apartment.

Except to acknowledge that "this definitely ties in with the Patty Hearst case," police generally have been tight-lipped about the matter.

Whether the bomb was supposed to explode inside the vacant apartment, or was to be picked up by someone and delivered elsewhere, was unknown.

Police to Eye Pedestrians

All San Bruno police officers have been instructed to give added attention to the pedestrian right-of-way violations in the city, Police Chief Russ Cunningham announced.

The chief said particular attention will be given to El Camino Real.

Cunningham reported that during the past fiscal year ending June 1975, 26 pedestrians were struck by automobiles, three of them being fatally injured.

"The police department hopes that by providing strict enforcement of the laws pertaining to the right of way of pedestrians there will be a drastic reduction in the number of pedestrians being struck by automobiles," Cunningham said.

The chief urged pedestrians to exercise more care when they cross roadways.

"It's always best to wait until the motorists has stopped or has given a signal to let the pedestrian know that he, the motorist, is going to permit the pedestrian to proceed," the chief said.

Robber Hits San Bruno Shop

The San Bruno Arts and Frame Shop was robbed by a lone bandit who bound three shop clerks and escaped with about $300 Wednesday afternoon.

According to police, the thief, described as about six feet tall and about 30 years of age, entered the shop at 992 El Camino Real at about 2 p.m., brandished a gun and ordered the three store clerks to lie on the floor.

With neckties he had brought to the shop in a flowered paper bag, the thief bound the clerks, Jeannie Hicks, 47, Gerri Szuter, 32, and Deanna Dorsett, 37.

Police said the bandit took about $300 from the cash register and escaped on foot.

The case is still under investigation.

PG&E Pilot Program

Daly City is one of just three Northern California cities selected for a special pilot program designed to demonstrate how homeowners can cut their energy use and save money by insulating their ceilings to industry standards.

The program is being sponsored by Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Electric and Gas Industries Association (EGIA) in cooperation with local insulation dealers and licensed contractors.

Officially, the campaign began Sept. 15.

A carefully selected sample of Daly City homes has been chosen for the study, according to Al F. Vial, PG&E's Northern San Mateo district manager.

"The purpose of concentrating on a sample of homes," Vial said, "is to keep the program manageable. We're trying a new idea here in Daly City, and we want to experiment on a smaller scale to find out how well the concept will work."

Here's how things are set up.

Roughly 2,500 Daly City homeowners will receive a special insert with their September and October PG&E bills alerting them that they can contact PG&E to have their attic insulation checked and their questions about energy conservation answered.

"We hope that this approach will succeed in bringing home the advantages of adequate ceiling insulation to our Daly City customers," Vial said.

"The R-19 industry insulation standard can reduce energy required for household heating by as much as 20 to 30 per cent and lead to long-term dollar savings. Our objective is to get this message across as widely as possible before the heating season begins," he said.

In addition to special pilot programs in Daly City, Lodi and Napa, PG&E is waging a ceiling insulation campaign throughout its 94,000-square-mile system in Northern and Central California, Vial said.

"We're trying a number of new concepts to determine which will work and which won't," he explained. "A lot of eyes will be on the program here in Daly City. The California Public Utilities Commission, the new State Energy Commission and utilities across California have a large stake in what we learn here."

Nell Norton

Good morning, good cooks.

In other parts of the country, September and October are the fall months — leaves fall, the temperatures fall and rains fall. But here in the beautiful Bay Area, our summer weather is still with us and a recipe for a salad for a hot day or a picnic still sounds appealing.

Fresh mushroom salads, well-seasoned, crackly crisp and combined with crunchables such as cucumber slices, green pepper strips, onion rings and tomato wedges are appetizing go-alongs with summery main dishes.

Serve a mushroom salad with sliced cold meats, fried chicken or fish, sandwiches in variety or what-have-you. These salads are comparatively wilt proof, too. If you are taking the garden salad to a picnic or if there is likely to be some delay in serving it, don't add the wedged tomatoes until the last minute, for they are likely to "leak."

Starting with a package of fresh mushrooms you can create dozens of inviting salads. Mushrooms also go with vegetables such as cooked green beans or green peas, or tender young lima beans, broccoli spears or raw cauliflowerettes and, of course, sliced or diced cooked new potatoes.

Modern cultivated mushrooms should never be peeled. The skins are imperceptible, or nearly so. If the bottom of the stem has dried a bit or turned brown, trim it away sparingly. Rinse the mushrooms in clear water and lift from the water into a colander to drain thoroughly or blot dry. If you prefer sliced mushrooms, an egg slicer will make this a speedy job.

One more word to the wise: allow for second helpings of mushroom salads. Those who have tasted them probably love them and those who are tasting mushroom salads for the first time will surely find them unexpectedly delicious.

MUSHROOM GARDEN SALAD

1 pound medium-sized fresh mushrooms
¼ cup oil
2 Tablespoons fresh lemon juice
¼ cup sliced scallions or green onions
1 Tablespoon basil leaves, crumbled
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cumin seed
one-eighth teaspoon ground black pepper
2 tomatoes cut into wedges
1 green pepper, seeded and cut into chunks

Rinse. Paty dry and halve the one pound mushrooms (makes about 5 cups); set aside. In a large bowl combine one-fourth cup oil, two tablespoons lemon juice, one-fourth cup sliced green onion, one tablespoon basil leaves, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon ground cumin seed and one-eighth teaspoon black pepper.

Pour over mushrooms and toss well.

Mendocino Coast Honeymoon Site

The Mendocino Coast and Lake Tahoe are the honeymoon destinations of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anthony Baldanzi who were married Saturday afternoon at St. Dunstan's Church in Millbrae.

The bride is the former Diane Louise Giovannini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Giovannini of Millbrae. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baldanzi of San Mateo.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Joseph Gordon and was followed by a reception at the Machinists' Hall in Burlingame.

Diane recited her vows in a gown of organza and peau d'ange lace with light beading. She added a matching chapel length veil and carried a cascade of white roses, white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath. Diane was given in marriage by her father.

Janet Kaehms, her sister's honor attendant, wore a bright yellow dress that was trimmed in white lace. She carried white carnations and yellow baby roses and baby's breath.

The same gowns and flowers were chosen by the bridesmaids who were Maryann Holman, Linda Chavez, Ronda Bishop and Mary Galdanzi, sister of the bridegroom.

Diane was graduated from Capuchino High School.

The airman, trained to inspect food serving and storage facilities, is being assigned to Beale AFB, Calif.

A 1972 graduate of Terra Nova High School, he attended the College of San Mateo and Skyline College, San Bruno.

Enbarked

Navy Mess Management Sp. 2C. Narciso B. Baure, son of Mrs. Lucia V. De Baure of 130 Peoria St., Daly City, is embarked on a Mediterranean deployment aboard the aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy, homeported at Norfolk, Va.

He and his shipmates are scheduled to visit Naples, Italy; and Barcelona, Rota and Palma, Spain.

He joined the Navy in November, 1965.

Trained

A Daly City man has graduated at Sheppard AFB, Tex., from the technical training course for U.S. Air Force aircraft mechanics.

Airman Lawrence A. Quinn, son of retired Air Force Technical Sgt. and Mrs. John F. Quinn of 21 Southdale Ave., was trained to repair current Air Force jet aircraft.

Completion of the course enables him to receive academic credits through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman now goes to Nellis AFB, Nev., for duty with a unit of the Tactical Air Command.

Participating

Midshipman Andrew A. Ahlgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Ahlgren of 716 Thornhill Drive, Colma, is participating in a summer training program as a student of the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The program includes two weeks of instruction in professional subjects at the academy; five days of damage control training at New London, Conn.; one week of instruction at the Marine Corps Development and Education Command, Quantico, Va.; and one week of training with the destroyer force at Newport, R.I.

Ahlgren will begin his junior year at the academy in September.

He is a 1972 graduate of Westmoor High School.

CALLING FRIENDS

Women's Symphony League will hold its Bicentennial Tunerville Times from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Sunday at Aragon High School in San Mateo. A hot air balloon, food, games, pony and dog cart rides, antique fire engines and entertainment are planned. Proceeds benefit the San Francisco Symphony. Tickets will be available at the door. Making plans to attend are (from left) Kim Kraal of Daly City, Emily Freedman of Daly City and Tina Long of San Bruno.

The Season For Hurricanes

Other storms, like tornadoes, may generate stronger winds, but none can match the combined intensity, size, duration, and destructiveness of the hurricane.

The hurricane season runs from June through September. In the last 50 years, 92 hurricanes have reached the United States, leaving 5,047 dead.

Hurricane winds and rains claim more than 50 lives, and cause more than $100 million worth of property damage each year along the Atlantic and Gulf coastal states.

Remarkable Eagle Nests

Bald eagles range from southern Florida to Alaska, and are considered a national symbol. The birds build remarkable nests over the years.

Each season they add new sticks, trample in new grass, and sometimes add old bric-a-brac. Observers have found fishing plugs, light bulbs, and even a tablecloth in nests. One huge nest measured 10 feet across and 20 feet deep. Another weighed two tons.

Joe Greene's Vote Will Be Tie-breaker

Pacifica Planning Commissioner Joe Greene can make or break the proposed 46-unit townhouse project off Fassler Avenue and across from Crespi Elementary School.

Greene holds the swing vote, based on the fact he was absent from the commission's Tuesday night meeting and the six remaining commissioners deadlocked 3-3 on whether they wanted Fassler Avenue to remain two lanes or be made four-lanes its full length.

David Goldoff, project representative, said the housing complex will not be possible if the commission goes for a four-lane roadway.

After hearing the pros and cons of the issue until past midnight, commissioners continued the matter to Oct. 6.

In the meantime, said City Atty. Gloria Scheid, Greene must study the minutes of the Tuesday night session.

This proposed project has been pending for the past two years and a frustrated Coldoff at one point, his arms waving in the air, said "Let's lay it on the line, you guys."

He indicated he was irriteated by the fact he was confident he had complied with all conditions laid down by the city staff and the City Council, which had earlier approved the plan and referred the matter back to the commissioners to make sure half a dozen conditions were met. Then there suddenly appeared this question of road width.

SSF Councilmen Vote Housing Study Funds

South San Francisco city councilmen Wednesday night approved an expenditure not to exceed $4,470 to contract for a "limited exterior property study" intended to reveal housing problems and needs in specified sections of the city.

The project is part of the city's federal housing and community development block grant and is being conducted in concert with a door-to-door demographic survey by the city's information and referral center. That survey is being funded by a separate grant.

Councilmen authorized City Manager Ed Alario to enter into a contract with Leonard S. Mosias and Associates for the structural survey. The area to be surveyed includes Peck's Lots, Irish Town and the city's east core districts.

According to a staff report to the council, the purpose of the survey is to "assess the physical structural condition of housing units" and, tied in with the demographic study, will "give a total composite picture of housing problems and needs."

City Planner David Hale said, "The intent is to determine where there may be needed improvements and then to find programs (state and/or federal) to assist homeowners on a voluntary basis to upgrade their housing."

Hale said the city staff is talking with major banks about the possibility of establishing some sort of revolving fund of low interest ("maybe 3 percent") to be used for this purpose.

Seven different structural elements, such as foundations and roofs, will be evaluated and scored according to whether they are standard, capable of rehabilitation or substandard.

The information and referral center survey, meanwhile, will determine such things as population, housing and economic characteristics of the area.

"Data from both surveys will be analyzed and used to formulate a comprehensive housing and community development program which is proposed to be funded throughout succeeding years' housing and community development block grant applications," according to the staff report.

Councilman Terry Mirri questioned whether or not the use of the outside survey firm, and the results it turned up, would put the city in an awkward legal position of having to force upgrading of homes owned by people who can't afford to upgrade.

"Say, you have a senior citizen barely making it," suggested Mirri. "Will this (survey) incur a legal obligation on that owner whereby the city might be forced to recognize the deficiency of that property and have that citizen upgrade?"

City Atty. John Noonan responded that the survey would have no legal binding force but would certainly put the building department on notice about deficiencies, which then could be pursued forther.

Councilman Leo Padreddii abstained from voting on the issue.

O'Neill To Speak

Congressman Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill, majority leader in the U.S. House of Representatives, will be the featured speaker at a $50-a-plate testimonial dinner for Congressman Leo J. Ryan, D-San Mateo, Sept. 27 at the Hyatt House in Burlingame.

O'Neill is credited by many observers for being the driving force behind the 1974 impeachment proceedings against former President Richard Nixon by the House Judiciary Committee. He was elected first in 1952 to replace his old friend John F. Kennedy, who had been elected to the Senate.

The 250 available tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis and may be obtained by writing the Ryan Dinner Committee, P.O. Box 755, San Mateo 94401 or phoning Ryan's office.

The dinner committee includes Norma Corey, Joseph Cotchett, Eleanor Curry, William Ratcliffe, Tony Tarlock and Fernando Vega.

Crosswalk Safety Urged at SSF Meetings

At an emotion packed meeting Thursday night, parents pleaded with the South San Francisco School Board to correct hazardous conditions on El Camino Real by McLellan Nursery where children cross the street on their way to school.

"We, as adults, are responsible for all the children on the face of the earth," said Mrs. Claire D'Amico, a parent. "And the closer we are geographically and emotionally, the more responsible we are."

Another parent, Mrs. Carmen Dostie, told the board that the area where children cross is part of a one-and-one-half mile stretch of El Camino that has no intersection or crossing lights. She said the police told her this same area is almost impossible to control because vision is blocked by the slope and curve of the road. Cars whizzing by, in some cases, might not be able to see pedestrians.

Ken Austin, the board's president, said the trustees would look into the possibility of erecting some sort of overhead walkway so the children could cross El Camino safely.

Thomas Fee, whose son was involved in a car accident on El Camino, asked that the board hire traffic police to patrol the area until steps are taken to correct the hazardous conditions. The board declined to take such action.

The problem is complicated because the school route the children take includes private land over which South San Francisco has no jurisdiction. And El Camino itself is a state road.

But Fee insisted the school board share the responsibility.

"If a child is killed at this crossing next week, I think the board will live to regret it," he said.

"Losing a child is a very emotional moment," said Mrs. D'Amico. "I can tell you that; Mrs. Dostie can tell you that.. We've both been down that road.

"Sitting beside a hospital bed and hearing your child cry out in pain is a very emotional fact. And going outside that room and not knowing if, when you return, your child will be alive is a very emotional fact.

"Now, how would you feel if you were the person beside that bed or beside that casket?" she asked the board. "We have to do something about that (safety hazards) right now."

Mrs. Dostie suggested that fencing be installed on the median of El Camino so crossing will be impossible, except at formal crosswalks.

Peninsulans Wed In San Francisco

Jane M. Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Wallace of San Bruno, was married Saturday afternoon at Temple Baptist Church in San Francisco to John P. Bolanos. The bridegroom is the son of Captain and Mrs. H O. Bolanos, also of San Bruno.

The 1 p.m. ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Richard Jefferson and followed by a reception at the Millbrae Community Center. From there, the couple departed on a honeymoon trip that will take them to Lake Shasta, Oregon, Washington and Victoria, B.C. They will return to live in Davis where John is majoring in entomology.

As Jane and her father approached the altar, she was wearing a white organza gown appliqued with flowers and styled with full sleeves and a chapel train. The same flower appliques provided detailing on her short veil.

Sue Campbell of Yuba City was maid of honor for her former college roommate. Bridesmaids were Cathy Wallace, Jane's sister; Beth Gallion, another former roommate; and Heather Kemp, Kathy Reid and Adie Levin. They wore gowns of blue and white gingham with sheer sleeves and neckline and carried daisies, baby's breath and blue delphinium.

Denise O'Reilly, the flower girl, was frocked in white organdy which was flocked with blue and white flowers.

Nutrition Fad the Newest American Hobby

Does gelatin strengthen your fingernails?
Is vinegar and honey an effective medicine?
Can vitamin pills do you serious harm?

As such questions float through the air, some observers call the nutrition fad the newest American hobby. To support their contention they point to the best sellers that were authored by the late Adelle Davis and Doctor Jarvis. Both are apostles of organically grown food; both believe in the constant use of vitamins and of carefully selected foods.

But lately a cadre of biochemists and dieticians are joined in debunking the nutrition faddists.

Among them is Dr. John M. Hill, a biochemist. He calls the faddists the dispensers of snake oil and nostrums. He says too many people are feeling a little muddled about the whole nutrition bit.

TO SET THE record straight, Dr. Hill writes that gelatin doesn't strengthen fingernails. Honey has no more nutritional value than sugar. Raw sugar has no more value than white sugar and, besides, it is illegal to sell it in the United States because of unsanitary processing.

In a recent interview Dr. Hill said "To many vitamins can definitely hurt your health, and too many people blindly overdose themselves." "There is a lot of information about vitamins. Adelle Davis was able to attract a large following, but she was sometimes nutritionally incorrect and at times advocated harmful practices," Dr. Hill said.

Dr. Hill writes that raw milk can be very dangerous because of bacteria that is not killed through pasteurization.

He labels as fads such beliefs as carrot juice relieves leukemia, garlic reduces fever and foods prepared with a certain grater of shredder or blender are the only foods that will maintain their value.

Samuel Chandler

SAYS DR. HILL: "If you eat a well balanced diet, there's no need to take vitamin supplements, . . . Eat a balanced diet from the four basic food groups — meat, fruit and vegetable, milk and milk products, and bread and cereals and you won't need supplements."

Even as Dr. Hill speaks and other scientists echo his words, the followers of Davis, Jarvis and the others that they call faddists gear for a fight. They point out, with W. D. Currier of the American Academy of Nutrition, that following Ms. Davis would bring "a greater advancement in health than any other occurrence in the history of mankind."

Volunteers Program

"School Volunteers — What They Do and How They Do It" is the topic for a workshop co-sponsored by 17th District, California PTA and the County Schools Office to be held Oct. 2, 9:30 a.m.-noon at the CTA Building, 1705 Murchison Dr., Burlingame.

Walt Smithey, education program manager for the county schools office, and members of his staff will present basic information.

It is expected that experienced classroom volunteers present will share information.

Arnim Weems, formerly assistant superintendent for the San Mateo County Schools and currently parent education director for 17th District, and M. J. Stephens, volunteer coordinator for the Menlo Park School District, and assistant school volunteers chairman for the 17th district, will assist Smithey.

Scholarships Available, Papan Office Has Forms

State scholarship and grant applications for the 1976-77 academic year are now available at the office of Assemblyman Louis J. Papan, D-San Mateo County.

The undergraduate awards, also available through the State Scholarship and Loan Commission, include the State Scholarship, College Opportunity Grant (COG) and the Occupational Education and Training Grant (OETG).

A student can qualify in more than one category by filling out a single form.

"These programs were set up to aid people in attending college or securing vocational training," Papan said.

"I urge anyone who is interested to apply. Many people who thought they didn't have a chance have obtained the awards in the past. This year nearly 13,200 State Scholarships, 3,100 COG's and 700 OETG's will be awarded throughout the State," Papan said.

Filing deadline for the COG's and State Scholarships is December 6.

Deadline for filing for the OETG's is Feb. 27.

"High school students and college freshman, sophomores and juniors from low and middle income families are eligible for State Scholarships," Papan said.

Application forms may be obtained by calling Assemblyman Louis J. Papan, 756-6400.

Gillespie Design on Bicentennial Record Jacket

Lorraine Heath

Phone 755-1579

Congratulations to Ken Gillespie, whose design will grace the jacket of Standing Room Only's new Bicentennial record!

The disc, "Freedom" and "San Francisco" is narrated by KGO's Jim Eason, and Lloyd Liebes, Jr. was responsible for the photography.

ANOTHER ARTISTIC creation, which may have come to your attention if you traverse Southgate or Sullivan avenues, is the lovely new St. Andrew's Catholic Church which was completed last summer.

The design and striking appearance of the building is only the beginning of the story about this new addition to the city's format. The building has been designed to facilitate several uses — a multi-purpose parish center.

In its versatility, the building can accommodate worshipers in one area, offices in another, and a chapel is situated in yet another area. There remains much flexible space.

There is an opportunity for everyone in the community to take part in an ongoing schedule of classes at the center.

Sister Irmalyn Benkert, CSC, is the coordinator of a program, which includes pre-school through adult education, and she is excited about the latest series of courses beginning this week.

According to Sister Irmalyn, adults may enroll in classes ranging in scope from "Reflections on Life," "Death and Resurrection" to "How to Arrange Flowers for Your Next Dinner Party."

YESTERDAY, Sister Jeanenne Weis, of the St. Andrew's staff began a study of the Gospel of Luke. Her class meets on Tuesdays at 1:30 p.m. or on Fridays at the same hour.

Tomorrow, Brother Carl Loyons, FSC, will begin a five-week course, "Is That All There Is?", dealing with the questions of life, death and the resurrection. Classes will begin at 8 p.m. Tomorrow, "Celebrating in the Home" will begin, with Dorothy Giammona, Kathy Reber, Donna Tantillo and Sue Mannina teaching crafts to help enrich the texture of life within the home.

On September 29, Mrs. Margaret Ambrose will begin a workshop on flowers for decoration and entertaining.

All the classes will be taught in the parish center and they are all open to anyone interested in taking part. For additional information call Sister Irmalyn, 756-3222.

DON'T FORGET that the Friends of the Daly City Library will be meeting, for the first time, in the New Serramonte library, tomorrow, at 10 a.m.

City Librarian Samuel Chandler, will discuss the work of James Michener amid the lovely furnishings in the Community Cultural Room.

The Friends are especially proud of the Cultural room, which came into being largely through the toil of these library supporters.

Mrs. Emmett Tierney reports that the group has been responsible for the purchase of 50 matching chairs and dollies, three tables, a black board and screen, the lectern and public address system, the piano, portable stage, the display case and the compact kitchen which help make the room such a workable center for community oriented activities.

FRIDAY the Mary's Help Hospital Guild board will meet at 10:30 a.m. in the board room for an executive session prior to the general meeting and luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the solarium.

One of the main topics at both sessions will be the upcoming Luau to be held on October 4 in the Westlake Community Center.

Mrs. Helen Corbett and Mrs. Mary Short are in charge of this fun evening which will include such special attractions as a fashion show by Ron's Hawaiian and hula lessons by Father "Mac" McMonagle. Carter B. Smith of radio station KNBR will be the master of ceremonies.

The community center is small and only the first 150 requests for tickets can be honored. Call Mrs. Sarah Kelechave, 755-7732, immediately if you want to get in on the fun.

THE WESTLAKE CATHOLIC Women will sponsor "Luncheon Is Served" in the parish hall of Our Lady of Mercy Church on Oct. 2, according to Mrs. Robert Brizuela, the WCW publicity chairman.

Mrs. John Zuffo is the luncheon chairman and her co-chairman is Mrs. Michael Millane. For reservations call them at 756-6277 or 755-3411.

"GETTING STARTED with your Girl Scout Job" will be the theme of the planning session to be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Hope Lutheran Church.

Mrs. James Morino, publicity chairman for the Daly City Girl Scout Association, reports that this is an excellent way for all leaders to prepare for the months of scouting activities which are about to begin.

Well, underway, are the preparations being made for the Bicentennial celebrationg of Girl Scouting.

Alvin L. Schwarzbach, the general chairman, is being assisted by John Budlong, who will manage the physical arrangements. Mrs. Morino will handle public relations, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stewart will direct the opening ceremonies and Jackie Plichcik will do the photography.

Association liaisons are Mrs. Helen Edwards, Mrs. Iris Fallo, Mrs. Carol Miller, Mrs. Marge McCoy and Mrs. Carole Ann Scott. Nancy Appling and William Flanagan are ex-officio members of the committee which will be presenting the program in the Serramonte Shopping Center Mall in April.

GETTING IN THE MOOD

D.C. Horse Show

Riders and horses from all sections of the country will compete for a record $132,000 in prize money at the Grand National Horse Show which opens Oct. 24, at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

Considered to be California's most spectacular and colorful arena event, the Grand National also enjoys the distinction of being the biggest horse show west of the Mississippi, according to Cow Palace Manager Lex Connelly.

The 1975 extravaganza, Connelly said, is expected to draw some 1,500 horses, competing for national recognition, high premiums and trophies in 177 classes.

Attracting wide interest are three special classes which offer $10,000 each in prize money.

One, the Reined Cow Horse Classic, a highlight of the western division will be the richest class of its type ever held. The class was scheduled, Connelly said, "in response to growing nationwide interest in this unique horse whose use at one time was confined primarily to California and the west."

The two other $10,000 classes, both in the English division, are the Grand Prix Hunter Classic and the long-established World Championship Jumper Sweepstakes.

With added entry fees, each of the three classes will pay at least $15,000 to the winners.

Other features of this year's show include the $5,000 Grand Prix Hackamore Horse Classic, a reinstated Tennessee Walking Horse Division with a $1,000 championship stake and a full schedule of breeding and performance classes for quarter horses, Arabians and Appaloosas.

56 Signers – all Americans – all pioneers – all rebels in their day – all determined to free their fledging country from the tyranny of England's King and Parliament.

" - - - - - - we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor." The closing words of the Declaration of Independence. How many of us would be so daring, so fool-hardy today?

So, in these Bicentennial Years, let's all break out the flag. Fly it high. Fly it proudly. Fly it to show our respect for the memory of those great 56 men who dared to defy one of the strongest powers on earth so that America might be born and grow into the greatest and most generous country in the world.

We offer at cost as a Bicentennial Public Service a complete home flag kit – a 3 x 5-foot double-stitched heavy cotton flag – a 6-foot jointed 2-piece staff with top ornament – a heavy mounting bracket with three screws – all in a sturdy 2-piece storage carton with full color flag history folder. Order yours today by mail or by stopping in our office. Use coupon for mail orders.

Punt, Pass, Kick Competition

Daly City youngsters will be dusting off their footballs and loosening up their throwing arms and kicking foot as they prepare for this year's Punt, Pass and Kick competition.

Punt, Pass and Kick is sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and locally by Serramonte Ford in cooperation with the National Football League.

Participants in the Punt, Pass and Kick program compete only against other youngsters their own age.

Any youngsters 8 through 13 years of age, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register at Serramonte Ford located at 999 Serramonte Blvd., Colma.

When a youngster registers, he or she is given a free Punt, Pass and Kick Tips Book by Ralph at Serramonte Ford.

This booklet includes a complete set of rules, helpful conditioning exercises and important punting, passing and place kicking tips by outstanding pros.

The local competition will be held at Westlake Park on Saturday, Oct. 4 beginning at 10:30 a.m.

If a youngster is accompanied by a parent, he or she may register on the day of competition at Westlake Park.

Registration forms and tips booklets may also be picked up at the Westlake Community Center and the War Memorial Community Center.

Playground Fun Starts

The Daly City Recreation Department fall playground program at school and park facilities has begun.

The following facilities will be open with a recreation leader on duty from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays at Robertson, Panorama, George Washington, Colma, Skyline, Daniel Webster, M. Pauline Brown, F. D. Roosevelt, and Vista Mar. Parks and community centers including War Memorial, Lincoln, Marchbanks, Westlake, Westmoor and Gellert.

Grounds are closed the first and third Mondays each month for staff meetings and periodically because of bad weather.

The playground program activities are geared for children from 7 - 12 years of age and will include flag football, kickball, tournaments, special event days, excursions and many other different types of play experiences.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Greenhouse Gourmet Salad Bar Famous

First-time patrons at Lehr's Greenhouse in San Francisco are always delightfully surprised at the modest prices. Dinners start at $5.25 and the range of entrees includes such gourmet delights as Chicken Kiev and Roast Rack of Baby Lamb. All dinners include Lehr's famous gourmet salad bar (a meal in itself) and the fabulous flower-filled garden tantalizes the eyes as you pamper your palate . . . Beef lovers will appreciate "The Beefeater," one of the $3.95 dinners featured at the Shirt Tail, in Palo Alto, this week. The entree consists of choice tender cubes of sirloin cooked with fresh mushrooms and pearly onions in a light wine sauce . . . Traveling and sightseeing are favorite pastimes with Vince Licata, the hard-working "captain" of Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant in San Mateo. On the Licata's recent excursion to Alaska, which took them to such interesting places as Anchorage, Fairbanks, and Skagway, they took a boat cruise on the Sun Princess and checked out the fishing boats along the way (that's what you call mixing business with pleasure) . . . The 50 cent coupon found in today's "Bright Lights" is honored at any one of the nine restaurants located in Tanforan Park's Garden Restaurant complex. Note: The coupon is valid only through the evening dinner hours after 4 p.m. A limit of one per customer with any purchase over one dollar.

Tiffani Camile Makes World Debut

More news from Pantry Donuts: Alexis Saccheri, the swingin' coffee 'n' doughnut dispenser, has become an aunt. A baby girl, Tiffani Camile, was born September 10, 3:29 p.m., to Anna and Jack Righini. The little lady weighted in at 7 pounds, 2½ ounces. Wouldn't surprise us if Alexis taught her new niece the doughnut business in years to come. Congratulations, Jack and Anna . . . Helen Trainor, the matriarch of the Scotty Campbell's clan, has returned to the Peninsula scene after a short vacation. Besides relaxing for a few days in Carmel and Monterey, she ventured as far south as Disneyland, where she joined Mary Lou Fox, co-owner-host of the famous Redwood City restaurant, and Richard for a couple of days of sightseeing . . . Throughout his illustrious restaurant career, dapper Enrico Romano has always been appreciative of attractive gals. This still holds true, as one of the waitresses working at his Romano's restaurant in Rockaway Beach is pretty Karen Clifford, a local girl with a friendly way with customers.

Enjoy Sunday Brunch At Carnelian Room

One of Sunday's brighter lights is the brunch served in the Carnelian Room, located 52 stories above San Francisco in the Bank of America Center, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. If you miss this, the Carnelian Room also offers a delightful Sunday evening gourmet feast, which you will find is totally different. Dinner is served from 6 p.m. Validated parking is also available . . . Taste treat: The upstairs restaurant at Barney's Casino, South Lake Tahoe, serves a Jumbo Shrimp Cocktail (a meal in itself) which defies comparison . . . No parking problems at the South Tahoe Nugget, in Stateline, Nev. Drive in and park right at casino doorside. All the action and excitement that Nevada affords awaits your visit here, plus the most reasonable breakfast and dinner prices in the area . . . Nevada Tours continues to lead the parade with the many fun tours. If you're planning a trip or scheduling a bus charter to the Nevada area, suggest you call Kay (345-0488).

Lehr's Steakery Theatre Stop-Off

The elegant Wellington Room of Phil Lehr's Steakery in downtown San Francisco is a popular pre-theater dinner stop for ticketholders to "Odyssey" at the nearby Curran Theater. Service is swift and attentive and there is ample doorside parking at the Taylor-Ellis carriage entrance . . . On your weekend drive to the coast, stop off at Nick's restaurant and lounge in Rockaway Beach, Pacifica. Have a cocktail, watch the ocean, relax. You'll probably find yourself here at dinnertime — and what a nice way to finish off the day . . . One of the most romantic spots along the coast is The Moonraker. Experience the hypnotic view, floodlights on the breakers after sundown, and some of the area's finest seafood and steaks . . . Located on the lower level of the same building is Captain Charles, specialists in seafood, of course. Seafood, shellfish, beef, omelettes, salads — all are prepared in a different continental manner . . . Coyote Point's exotic Castaway is famous for its Sunday Brunch. Every entree from the brunch menu includes visits to their fresh fruit table. Champagne is also included.

A STREAKING HULK

Burlingame power back Rick "The Hulk" Harper, is about to be hauled down by Westmoor defender Rick Wyatt after long gainer in game Friday. Harper scored on the next play. Harper gained 91 yards, leading a Panther ground assault that blitzed the Rams 39-0.

Panthers Rout Rams

By STEVE JOHNSON

Burlingame High's football team opened its non-league season Friday in what could safely be called satisfactory style.

The Panthers rolled up 339 yards total offense, 314 of that on the ground, on the way to a 39-0 rout of host Westmoor in Daly City.

Westmoor (0-2), which gained only 100 yards, aided Burlingame considerably with six turnovers. The Panthers cashed in on three.

Burlingame defensive end Arnold Moore set up Burlingame's opening score by blocking and then recovering a Westmoor punt at the Ram 26. Seven plays later, quarterback Rusty McDowell went over from the one.

The Panthers, who sputtered a bit in the first half, scored again with 56 seconds left in the second quarter on Rick Harper's yard plunge.

Burlingame then took care of all its sputters at halftime and put away Westmoor with a 19-point explosion in the third quarter.

Reserve fullback John Falk powered up the middle on a 17-yard TD run. Moore went 13 yards on an interception return, and Harper smashed over from the two.

After a Moore interception and short return to Westmoor's 28 on the first play of the fourth quarter, Byron Hawkins sped around right end to paydirt on the second play.

Harper led the Panthers with 91 yards on ten carries. He got 73 yards in three cracks during the drive that resulted in his second touchdown.

Hawkins was 13-76, McDowell 8-60, and Falk 5-47. Burlingame backs, eight of which saw action, averaged over six yards a carry.

Westmoor has been outscored 64-6 in its losses.

Burlingame	7	7	19	6	39

Scoring: B—McDowell 1 run (McDowell kick), B—Harper 1 run (McDowell kick), B—Falk 17 run (McDowell kick), B—Moore 13 interception return (kick failed), B—Harper 2 run (kick failed), B—Hawkins 28 run (kick failed).

Jefferson Falls To Falcon '11'

By JOHN MURPHY

One play can sometimes dramatically change the outcome of a football game. For Crestmoor High such a play assured a 21-0 win over Jefferson Friday in Daly City.

With Crestmoor leading 9-0 in the third quarter and the ball resting on the Falcon 47-yard line, Jefferson quarterback Ron Sylvia hit receiver Ron Oliver on a sideline route. Oliver maneuvered through two defenders and sprinted into the end zone for an apparent touchdown.

However, an Indian lineman was detected for holding, nullifying the touchdown. That proved to be the key play as Crestmoor went on to score two fourth quarter touchdowns on the brilliant running of senior Mike Mooney.

Mooney rolled up 134 yards on 21 carries. He scored on runs of 12 and 46 yards, and had a 35-yard TD punt return wiped out by a penalty on an earlier scoring jaunt.

Crestmoor led 2-0 at halftime by virtue of a blocked Jefferson punt that rolled out of the end zone. Falcon QB Larry Navilhon moved his team inside the Jefferson 20 yardline on three occasions in the first half, only to be repelled by turnovers or penalties.

Navilhon finally took his team to paydirt with 11:50 left in the fourth quarter on a 46-yard scoring toss to running back Jeff Maxoutopoulis.

Many of Jefferson's starters were going both ways, and the Indians tired noticeably in the fourth quarter.

Crestmoor, considered to be a Mid Peninsula League contender, is 1-0. Jefferson is now 0-1-1.

Crestmoor	0	2	0	19	21
Jefferson	0	0	0	0	0

Scoring: C — Safety — punt blocked in end zone, Jeff- Maxoutopoulis 46 pass from Navilhon (Blanco kick), Mooney, 12 run (kick failed), Mooney, 46 run (kick failed).

NEWSPAPERS, THE DAILY BARGAIN

If you're going to spend money advertising, advertise where you get the most for your money.

The 10[c] coupon is worth more in '75. At least 78% of the people are cutting costs with newspaper coupons.

When asked where they look for the best buys in groceries, meat or produce, 82% of food shoppers said, "newspapers". 9% said radio. 4% said TV. 1% said magazines.

Grocery store chains invest 62% of their advertising budget where people shop 3 to 1 over any other medium. The daily newspaper.

Out of 18,000 interviewed: 75% check daily newspapers for food prices.

When you're selling everything from soup to nuts, not even a full week of TV commercials can match the scope or impact of a daily newspaper ad.

9 out of 10 people see newspaper food ads each week. At least 7 buy the food advertised.

ROP COLOR

ROP Color makes food advertising even more effective. Many advertisers report that the increased readership and sales produced by color advertising makes it a profitable investment.

The Times has just introduced a new frequency discount contract available to ROP Color advertisers that makes ROP Color advertising even more attractive. For example, run 12 ROP Color ads per year and receive 1 Color Premium FREE. See your Times' representative for complete details.

The Adults in The Times' City Zone Market Speak Out for The Times!

THE TIMES has the largest daily newspaper audience, 60% of all adults.

Newspapers are the Number 1 grocery advertising medium, 3 out of 4 adults refer to grocery ads in the newspaper.

THE TIMES is the Number 1 preferred newspaper for grocery advertising, over 90% of those who refer to grocery ads, refer to The Times.

THE TIMES was rated "most helpful" for grocery shopping by a margin of more than 12 to 1 over any other daily newspaper.

Le Pacini

Steve Shirley, Terra Nova High's and Pacifica's answer to Sandy Koufax, was listed as "inactive" during the last week or so of California League play, as noted by a weekly newspaper cataloguing of how Peninsula boys are doing in the minor leagues.

There was good reason, as Shirley demonstrated to his friends at a recent Terra Nova football game, when he waved hello to them with a plaster cast on his waving, or pitching, arm. The old salary wing had been busted ingloriously off the field of play, somehow ("I have no comment on that," says Shirley), but Steve isn't worried. He's ready to make a comeback next season in, hopefully, class AA ball.

The strong young southpaw is developing rapidly, and it isn't inconceivable that someday in not too distant future two former Terra Nova left handers will be opposing each other in a World Series — Shirley for the Dodgers and Bob McClure for the Royals.

McCLURE, of course, is a few years ahead of Shirley in the pro ranks and was ticketed for a possible full season of duty with Kansas City this year until he broke one arm, then the other.

He, too, has no comment on his wounds, but Shirley is optimistic about his healing.

McClure, despite a lack of spring training, pitched so well in a brief period in the minors when he came back in late season, that he was called up for the last few weeks of the season by the Royals, and has already pitched effectively in several games.

All that's hampering McClure, it seems, is that American League umpires don't buy his fantastic move, the one that picked 19 runners off the bases in AAA competition last year. He's already had a couple of balks called on him, despite advanced warning to the umps about his unbelievable move, and, as he explained incredulously to Shirley when the Royals were playing in Oakland recently, "And I haven't even showed them my GOOD move yet!"

Shirley, in the meanwhile, managed to survive rough bus rides and a $6.50 daily food allowance ("Actually, it isn't bad if you eat a light lunch and a Sambo's steak for dinner") to compile an 8-9 win-loss record with a 3.92 ERA at Bakersfield. More important, he averaged only 4.9 walks per nine inning game. On the face of it, that isn't an outstanding statistic, but it takes on significance when compared to Shirley's walk-per-inning performance when he broke into pro ball with Bellingham of the Northwest League last year.

STEVE'S strikeouts also were cut somewhat, although he still averaged a credible 6.3 per game. But the reduction of both walks and K's is part of the rookie's learning process.

While basically throwing as hard as he ever did (and that's very hard, indeed), he's improved his control by slowing down his motion (that is, the motion he uses to deliver the ball, not his arm speed) while speeding up his delivery time between pitches. It's that and simply more concentration on where he wants to throw the ball.

"I used to just aim everything down the middle of the plate," confesses Shirley. "Now I'm always thinking corners."

He feels that what has helped him most of all, however, is the speed-up of delivery time. "I was thinking too much between pitches," he says, "and the Dodger coaches told me that thinking was getting me into trouble. So now I just get the ball from the catcher, get his signal, look at a corner, and fire."

He did that approximately 120 times a full game, a pretty low total for a power pitcher, throwing mostly fast balls, but with some curves and changes mixed in.

THE ONLY thing Shirley really dislikes about pro ball is that with most minor leagues now using the designated hitter, he rarely gets a chance to swing a bat, a skill that he developed so well in high school that Dick Murray, the scout who signed him, once told this columnist that, "If Steve doesn't make it as a pitcher, we think he could do it swinging the bat and using that arm and speed of his in the outfield."

Based on what has transpired this past season, it looks as if Shirley is going to have to trade his batter's gloves in for a gross of toe plates.

SOME STATS: At last reading, John Montefusco was third in the NL in strikeouts . . . There were twice as many .300 hitters in the NL as in the AL, but the AL had a lot more homers, with fine teams hitting over 100 homers, only four for the NL . . . And also-ran Minnesota was behind only Cincinnati and Boston in all of baseball in scoring, which proves two or three things: that it takes a little something more than hitting to be a winner, and that Cincy and Boston have that little something more . . .

IT WAS A TOUGH STRUGGLE, but Monte Moore, despite rugged competition from the entire sporting world, took our Jerk of the Year Award (we don't even have to wait until Jan. 1, to name the winner, especially with Milt Kahn in New York being buried by jerks like Dick Young), with his on-air snide remarks recently about Giants' attendance in comparison with Oakland attendance.

It showed no class. It was kicking when an opponent is down.

And it was stupid, because the year the A's drop out of first place, Finley will be able to shoot real rockets off in the Coliseum and not have to worry about wounding anybody. And as far as we're concerned, he could aim them in the radio booth.

THE PROPOSED GIANTS' move of Chris Speier to third base would be very reasonable if they could find a shortstop who fields better than Speier and hits as hard as he does. Otherwise it would be fruitless.

The biggest Giants' weakness this year, as last year, has been at third base, where they have needed an at least adequate fielding, long ball hitter to round out what would then be a potent offense with a nice balance of singles hitters and power men. One of the reasons why the Giants need only one more power hitter instead of two is because Speier is one of baseball's better hitting shortstops.

But as a third baseman Speier is only a fair hitter, certainly not the real punch the Giants need at that position at this time, although Speier would doubtless be an outstanding defensive third sacker.

Therefore, unless Jimmy Lemaster, the rookie fielding whiz, demonstrates that he can be more than an all field, no hit shortstop, the Giants would be where they are now if not worse. Lemaster would really be taking the place of current platoon men Bruce Miller, who looks like a lifetime .240 hitter with no punch, and Steve Ontiveros, who shows no propensity for the long ball.

Offenses Were Dormant

SM Edges Serramonte

Considering the offensive attacks being generated by the rest of the Mid-Peninsula League contenders, San Mateo High's football team may be a little less than completely enthralled by Friday afternoon's opening win over Serramonte.

Any win is good, so a 6-0 victory isn't anything to throw back, but if first-year coach Dave Broillair's charges want to make good on the pre-season picks that have the Bearcats first, the offense may need a little shoring up.

Serramonte, meanwhile, gave a game away for the second straight week with four turnovers, the second of which led to the game's only score.

San Mateo started a powerful drive, its best of the game, from its own eight as the first period was ending. Serramonte had the 'Cats stopped on the Regent 40 when a very late face mask penalty kept the drive alive.

Then with Felix Cruz leading the way, the Regents again had the Bearcats stopped on the four and took possession. On Serramonte's first play, however, fullback Skip Campbell coughed up a mid-air fumble and SM recovered.

Clarke didn't even start for the 'Cats, but still managed to pick up 53 yeards in 24 carries. The difference, though, was the play of halfback Charlie Perkins, who scampered for 114 yards in 21 tries.

While San Mateo netted 165 yards rushing, it seems SM lacked the explosiveness shown last season, and that may make things a little tougher than expected over the rough MPL schedule.

Serramonte, meanwhile, didn't get any pass blocking for three quarters and only had one yard net at halftime. The Regents improved that a hundredfold in the second half but again didn't show any offensive consistency.

Serramonte's final drive was clicking along nicely until San Mateo defender Mike Smith intercepted a Keith Pult pass on the 28 to end what could have been a winning rally.

The Bearcat defense was tough against everyone except Skip Campbell and therein may lie the newly aligned hope for the '75 Bearcat season.

CLOSE DOESN'T COUNT

Oceana High receiver Francisco Miranda (dark jersey) got his fingertips on this pass Friday night at Burlingame Field, but Aragon defender Duane Yamauchi broke up the play. On offense Yamauchi hauled in five passes for 90 yards and a touchdown as Aragon downed the Sharks, 26-9.

Dons Stop TN Sharks

By DAN BERTELLOTTI

Paced by a stingy defense, Aragon High got its first win of the football season Friday night at Burlingame, downing visiting Oceana 26-9.

It took Oceana four series to gain even a single yard. And the Sharks didn't complete a pass until the last three minutes of the game.

Meanwhile the Aragon passing game, namely wide receiver Duane Yamauchi and quarterback Leo Gradinger, was clicking.

Yamauchi, who has one of the best pair of hands in the area, latched onto five tosses for 90 yards and one score.

His fourth-down TD catch was a beauty. He literally took the ball out of the defender's hands and waltzed in.

Gradinger proved to be the best runner in the Don backfield. Displaying good speed and quick cuts, he gained 102 yards on 11 carries. He was seven of 17 in the air with three interceptions, but two were deflections.

"We feel that we have one of the best groups of receivers in the area," said winning coach Dick Breaux.

With Half Moon Bay on the schedule next week, chances are good for Aragon (2-0-1) to go undefeated through the practice season.

Oceana	0	6	0	3	— 9
Aragon	6	12	8	0	— 26

Scoring: A. Geranios 1 run (pass failed); Gradinger 1 run (run failed); Gradinger 14 run (pass failed); O. McCrary 77 kickoff return (kick failed); A. Yamauchi 8 pass from Gradinger (Gradinger run); O. Haas 2o field goal.

Win for Warriors

By JERRY LITTRELL

Reversing its tactic of a week ago, South San Francisco High's football team pulled quickly ahead, then held on in a frantic finish Friday night to register its second straight win against top-notch competition.

The Warriors defeated St. Ignatius, 19-15, in dimly-lit Kezar Stadium on the strength of a devastating first-half offensive performance.

Bob Luster wedged his way for 65 yards on the second play of the game for the Warriors' first TD, and a lucky fumble recovery led to a 13-0 lead early in the second quarter.

South City punted and SI's Dan Hurley had the ball slip away from his grasp on the 24. Warrior tailback Tali Ena powered over for 11, Asa Hilliard added another 12 and Luster capped the drive with a one-yard plunge.

The Wildcats came back with a 77-yard drive and, for the one and only time, managed to get around the South City defense with quarterback rollouts. But SI abandoned the tactic afterword, and lost a lot of its punch.

Ena, who had 123 yards by halftime, ended the SSF scoring with a 33-yard run as the first half drew to a close. So did the SSF offense.

The Wildcats assumed command in the second half. When a beautifully spiraled SSF center snap sailed majestically out of the end zone the two-point safety brought SI within 10 points.

The Wildcats took the kickoff and marched right back for another TD when Charles Glass, who had dropped two of the easiest passes ever thrown atoned for his mistake by catching the first SI completion after 10 attempts for a 14-yard score.

It was here the Warriors managed to muster forces for one time-killing drive. Ten plays used up all but 55 seconds of the final five minutes before SSF had to turn the ball over for a desperate final SI drive.

After the final gun had sounded the Warriors were called for a justified 15 yarder (their nine infractions cost them a total of 115 yards), and a dipsy-doo Wildcat pass play almost broke loose for a winning score, but a diving tackle on the SSF 42 ended the game.

South San Francisco	7	12	0	0	— 19
St. Ignatius	0	7	0	8	— 15

Scoring: South SF — Luster 65 run (Arias kick); Luster 1 run (run failed). St. Ignatius — Gentren 1 run (Tracey kick). South SF — Ena, 33 run (kick failed). St. Ignatius — Safety, punt snap out of end zone: Glass, 14 pass from Murphy (kick blocked).

Final Hearing on Bruno Mtn. Plan

The issue of more homes and jobs versus preservation of open space were reiterated Wednesday as the San Mateo County Planning Commission held its eighth and final hearing on a rezoning proposal to permit a multi-million dollar community development on San Bruno Mountain.

Commission chairman Fred Cohen said following the 3½-hour session in Redwood City that the commission will make a field trip to the mountain Sept. 29 at 1:30 p.m., and that there will be a meeting of the commission Oct. 1 at 9 a.m. to review the voluminous testimony from the series of hearings which began last June 25.

No date has been scheduled by the commission for entering a recommendation to the Board of Supervisors as to the rezoning proposal.

Robert L. Follett, general manager of Visitacion Associates, which plans to develop the Crocker Hills community on San Bruno Mountain, stated at Wednesday's rebuttal and summary hearing that some 10,000 people will be employed in the community when the project is completed.

In addition, he said, at least 2,000 of the jobs will be entirely new to San Mateo County. Furthermore, Follett claimed, during the 15-year building period Crocker Hills will support an average of 500 construction jobs annually, which in turn will generate some 3,500 jobs in related industries.

Mimi Whitney, speaking for the Committee to Save San Bruno Mountain, said the organization agrees with Visitacion Associates that more housing, especially for the low and moderate income persons, and commercial facilities will be needed in the county.

"The basic question and the issue before you is where should we build housing and commercial facilities and where should we develop a park," she stated.

Pets Die In Blaze

Four cats and a dog perished in a Daly City fire Wednesday when flames drove their owner from her split-level home at 97 Muirwood Drive.

Mrs. Mary Harris made repeated attempts to rescue her pets, but smoke and heat forced her to flee the home, a fire department official said.

She was not hurt.

As a last effort to help the animals escape, Mrs. Harris left the front door of the home open. But that allowed a draft to fan the fire, investigators said.

The fire apparently started in a television set, the investigators noted.

Mrs. Harris reportedly fire officials she was upstairs at about 4:15 p.m. when she heard a "crackling sound" and saw flames near the television set. Fire damage to the home and contents was estimated at $17,000.

Crash Hurts Hang Glider

Mannion was hang gliding from the cliffs above Thornton Beach State Park when he apparently lost control and slammed into the ground.
